

Opening new horizons

PresseMitteilung

Seite	Nummer	Datum
1 of 1	05/09	20.04.2009

Rostock Seaport exhibits at the trade fair “TransRussia” in Moscow

The operator of Rostock Seaport, Hafen-Entwicklungsgesellschaft, is taking part in the 14th international transport and logistics exhibition “TransRussia 2009, held in Moscow from May 21st to 24th.

Hafen-Entwicklungsgesellschaft, along with Rostock companies Scandlines and Baltic Lloyd exhibiting at a 64 square meters big booth of the German federal state of Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania.

About 26,000 visitors are expected at this year’s fair by forwarding companies and ports as well as shipping, air and railway operators from 29 different countries.

Hafen-Entwicklungsgesellschaft is taking part in the largest and most important transport exhibition in Russia and the Baltic States for the fifth time this year.

More information: <http://www.transrussia.ru/eng/>